

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

Conclusion

This study is about an analysis of the types of errors in making request by students grade 10 and 11 senior high school in Cahaya Islamh Islamic Boarding School in 2020. The study identify the types of errors refer to the theory by J.Richard et al. (2000), but in this research researcher doing the analysis by looking deeply into the more specific and detail regarding the types of errors that found in the answer sheet of the participants and the types of errors not mention yet in the theory above.

After analyzing the data,the researsher found 8 Of 10 types of errors in this research (impoliteness, gramatical error, wrong choice of words, wrong auxiliary,wrong structure, wrong vocabulary, not accaptable, and illogical). The findings showed that most of the students are making the errors in Grammar, Choice of Words and also Stucture, and there are 2 types of errors that not found in this research, Wrong idiomatic Ekspression and also pronunciation. This happen because the students not familiar yet with the idiom and for pronunciation because the researcher did not listen to the students practice or read the dialogue.