ABSTRACT

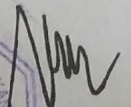

The research has the purpose to find the relationship of workplace spirituality, trust and perceived risk towards knowledge sharing behavior on coordination of private higher education region x. The data obtained through questionnaire, and sample were drawn from 78 of staff with status as civil servant in Kopertis X. The data analyzed by using SPSS 16 and SmartPLS 3.0. In this research there are four variables, those are independent variable which is workplace spirituality and trust, mediating variable which is perceived risk and the dependent variable which is knowledge sharing behavior. The finding indicated that workplace spirituality negative significantly effect knowledge sharing behavior, there is no significant effect between trust and knowledge sharing behavior, and perceived risk did not mediate the relationship between trust and knowledge sharing behavior.
