

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

4.1 Conclusion

This research was conducted to explain the category of slang word formation and to show the frequency occurrence of slang word formation on Tyrese Haliburton in Podcast P with NBA Superstar Paul George. In collecting data, this study analyzed words using definitions and characteristics of slang, as mentioned by experts. To ensure the words were indeed slang, this research referred to some slang dictionaries.

All slang words used by Tyrese Haliburton in the podcast episode were analyzed. This study is focused on sociological analysis of slang word formation; slang could simply change old words and come up with new meanings, such as trash, motherfucker, salty, fams, and others. As a result, the research found 33 slang word formation used by Tyrese Haliburton in the podcast.

4.2 Suggestion

After analyzing this research, this research is expected to guide future researchers to be able to improve and adapt to linguistic phenomena, particularly in the use of slang words in the field of linguistics. The researcher suggests future research to research different objects. Using different objects not only allows more slang word formation that has not been analyzed before, but also enrich the understanding in both slang word formation and sociolinguistics.