ABSTRACT

Zakat is an asset that must be paid by a Muslim to be given to those entitled to receive it according to Islamic law. However, in practice in the field such as in Padang City, there are obstacles that arise in the distribution of zakat by BAZNAS Padang City which is not evenly distributed with obstacles such as the ignorance of some mustahik about how to obtain their zakat rights from BAZNAS, the lack of human resources available to reach the smallest line, and also the lack of application of digital technology in BAZNAS Padang City, where this is still not in accordance with Article 2 of Law Number 23 of 2011 concerning Zakat Management which states that zakat management in Indonesia is based on one of the principles of justice. Therefore, the formulation of the problem taken in this study is 1. How is the implementation of zakat distribution in the National Zakat Agency of Padang City based on Law number 23 of 2011 concerning Zakat Management and the obstacles and solutions. 2. How is the Implementation of the Principle of Justice in the Zakat Distribution System at BAZNAS Padang City The research method used is an empirical juridical research method by looking at normative provisions and how they are implemented in society. The results of this study indicate that the principle of justice has not been implemented because 31 out of 50 mustahik have not felt the benefits of zakat, where to implement the principle of justice, BAZNAS must distribute the zakat funds equally to all mustahik in Padang City without any remainder. For the lack of information experienced by the poor and needy in Padang City, it is hoped that BAZNAS can conduct wider socialization by optimizing the development of the times, namely through social media content, applications, or websites that can be used to achieve justice and equality in zakat distribution.
