

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

At the end of the analysis, the writer concluded that there are four politeness strategies used in Little Big Shot talk show. Those strategies are bald on record, positive politeness, negative politeness and off record. Each strategy is performed in some sub strategies and used in difficult context. 1). Bald on record is the strategy used by the speaker who does not have effort to reduce the impacts of FTA and the utterance is delivered directly, clearly and unambiguous, 2). Positive Politeness used by minimizing the distance between the speakers by expressing friendliness and solid interest, 3). Negative Politeness focus on negative face, by showing the distance between speakers, and minimizing disrupting on each other subject, 4). Off Record is the strategy used by the speaker to says something indirectly, the speaker does not say the word directly, and the hearer can speculate what the speaker's want.

Furthermore, the writer finds out there are 25 conversations used politeness strategies, they are 1). Positive Politeness Strategy appear in fourteen utterances. It is performed in seven sub unit strategies from fifteen sub unit strategies. They are Give Gifts to Hearer, Seek Agreement, Notice/ Attend to Hearer, Use in Group Identity Marker, Include Both Speaker and Hearer in the Activity, Exaggerate and Give (ask for) reasons. 2). Off record is performed in six utterances. They are uttered in four sub unit strategies from 15 strategies, they are Presuppose, Overstate, Be Ambiguous, and Use Rhetorical Question. 3). Bald on record is found in four utterances. 4). Negative politeness strategy occurs in 1 utterance that is be pessimistic strategy.

Positive politeness is the most strategy that used in this talk show. Positive politeness mostly used by Harvey as a speaker and the others are used by the guests star (the kids). It is happens because he is can distinguish the way he talks to adults and to children.
